Buying is Admonition

(By Associated Press)

Boston, December 30.—The belief that business readjustments and deflation is "more than half completed" and that "the worst is over" was expressed by B. F. Johnson, president of the Philadelphia and Pennsylvania chambers of commerce in an address before the Boston chamber of commerce today.

"Is it not good business as well as good patriotism to start buying now to set the wheels of industry once more into motion to relieve unemployment and to spread the improvement of conditions over a longer period? Let me warn you not to wait too long," he said.

Mr. Johnson asks the co-operation of business men in making the private operation of railroads under the transportation act a success.

(By Associated Press)

New York, December 30.—Habitués of the gilded cabarets along the "Gay White Way" will have at least one reminder this New Year's Eve of the old time rollicking midnight celebration before the demise of John Barleycorn—the prices for viands will be as high as usual. In some establishments diners will be asked to pay $15 for cover charges as a preliminary fee for the mere privilege of paying still more for a meal.

Notwithstanding high prices for the officially dry night of revelry however, virtually every restaurant had announced today all tables had been reserved. A glance at the proof sheets of the menus shows among other things cocktails, punches, fizzes, highballs and juleps—but the footnotes explain laboriously that these beverages are non-alcoholic.

DwindleExperiment Lasts One Short Week.

(By Associated Press)

Newbern, N. C., December 30.—The profit sharing system as a means of averting strikes was in a state of collapse today as far as the Newbern Iron Works and employees were concerned.

One week's work under the plan found the workers' pay envelopes ten per cent shy and today the plant was idle with the men on strike for their old wage scale.

Four weeks ago 76 cents an hour was the scale in the foundry and machine works. A ten per cent reduction was ordered on the ground it would be necessary to cut expenses or close the plant. A one day strike followed.

Another ten per cent lowering of the scale was soon proposed but the suggestion by a workman company run the plant, deduct actual operating and overhead expenses and divide that part of the income termed "profit" was agreed to as an experiment.

Last Friday the men received the amount equalling a twenty per cent reduction from the old wage of 76 cents an hour. Yesterday a strike was called.

When Civilization Menaced

(By Associated Press)

Marion, O., December 30.—Following a conference with President-elect Harding, Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, today expressed assurance the Versailles League of Nations will not be used by the President-elect as the basis of his proposed association of nations.

"I am assured he has no such idea in mind," Mr. Knox told newspaper correspondents. He said the new peace resolution may contain an amendment outlining a general foreign relations policy providing the United States should go to the aid of the rest of the world if civilization is again threatened as in 1914.

Mr. Knox discussed cabinet appointments with Senator Harding, but would not discuss this phase of the conference.

WINGLESS AIRPLANE WHICH RISES VIRTICALLY IS TESTED

The novel plane, showing the screw propellers.

Final tests have been completed successfully, according to experts present, on a flying machine which is a radical departure from present types and ideas. The plane has two pairs of horizontal blades which revolve in opposite directions. The machine can be made to rise vertically and then, by tilting the propellers, can be directed horizontally through the air. The plane has no wings. Herman Loeblinger, now dead, conceived the idea. His three sons, Victor, Curtiss and William, perfected the plane. In the picture the propellers are set for a vertical rise.

PROJECT
IS ENDED
BY CUTSComprehensive Army Housing
Program Had Been Prepared

Was to Have Cost $300,000,000

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 30.—A $50,000,000 item for army post construction, submitted by the War Department and refused by the House Appropriations Committee in reporting out the sundry civil supply bill, was the initial step in a new army housing project contemplating estimated expenditures of more than $300,000,000 over a period of ten or twelve years.

Details of the scheme formulated by the general staff are revealed in testimony taken by the committee just made public.

In urging Congressional approval of the plan Secretary Baker recommended many existing army posts, particularly those near large cities, be abandoned and sold, the funds to be used in financing the new project.

He did not, however, submit any list of posts which might be so disposed of.

WILSON VETOES
RESOLUTION TO SUSPEND ACTWilson Says Carriers Have Had Time to Adjust Affairs.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 30.—President Wilson vetoed today the joint resolution designed to suspend a section of the Clayton Act prohibiting common carriers from dealing with any concern having interlocking directors with the carriers, except to a limited extent as to contract.

The message was read in the Senate and some discussion followed as to what should be done with it. Senator LaFollette, Republican, finally asked it go over and this was agreed to.

The President, in his message said the principal of the Clayton act was sound and that the carriers had had ample time in which to adjust their affairs so as to comply with the law.

Also to be On JobTank Will be Used in Chicago
Suburb

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, December 30.—Squads from the Evanston Tank Corps and autos manned by city police each armed with a rifle will guard Evanston, Chicago's wealthy north shore suburb, from the raids of bandits who have terrorized women of the town, according to plans of the Mayor, Harry Pearson. The motor squads will tour the streets throughout the night. The tank unit is equipped with one tank. Two more robberies of women last night were added to the list of 50 attacks and robberies by bandits in the suburb.

Policemen dressed as women also will patrol the streets with revolvers concealed in handbags. They will be instructed to shoot to kill if suspects attempt escape.

EIGHT MEMBERS
M'GANNON JURY
FOR ACQUITTALJury is Expecting Long Siege
Before Definite Action.

Only Two Ballots Taken is Claim

(By Associated Press)

Cleveland, O., December 30.—Eight to four for acquittal was the reported stand of the jury in the second degree murder trial of Wm. H. McGannon, chief justice of the municipal court, at 11 o'clock this morning, 17 hours after the jury had retired to debate the evidence in the Kagy murder trial.

Two ballots had been taken, according to reports, with the result the same in each case.

After spending the night in their hotel quarters the jurors gave evidence a long siege was expected before a final decision was reached.

Before the jury room door was closed behind them when they went into session this morning the jurors were seen removing their coats.

BY FORDMain Plant of Ford Motor Company Closed IndefinitelyWill Resume As Soon As Possible is Statement

(By Associated Press)

Detroit, December 30.—Announcement was made today by the Ford Motors Company that its Highland Park plant which closed December 24th for inventory will not reopen January 3rd as planned, but will remain closed indefinitely.

The statement said: "The company has now decided not to reopen the plant next week but will resume operations as early as possible. The assembly plants throughout the United States will continue their operations as usual."

The statement added nothing in explanation and officials of the company declined to discuss the shut-down.

At the time of the closing of the plant for inventory approximately 50,000 workers were employed in the parent plant at Highland Park.

DRASTIC LAWS
TO BE SOUGHT
TO STOP CRIMELife Imprisonment For Burglars
And Bandits to be AskedNew York Criminal Court Judges
O. K. Proposals

(By Associated Press)

New York, December 30.—Eleven drastic amendments to the state criminal laws radically increasing penalties and aimed to check New York's crime advance, will be proposed simultaneously in the next Senate and Assembly with the endorsement of Greater New York's criminal court judges. This was announced today by the legislative committee of the court of general sessions.

Judge A. Rosalsky, speaking for the measure, said: "I am in favor of life imprisonment for burglars and highwaymen. The man who carries a weapon while committing a crime does not hesitate to use it when cornered. The time has come to adopt extreme measures for the safety of the public. Too much leniency has been shown criminals. The legislature should make it possible to deal with them as we do with wild animals—cage them for life."

TRAFFIC POSTS ARE NOW LIGHTED WITH ELECTRICITY

Three Posts Cost City $75 per Year
as 100 Candle Power Street Lights.

The three traffic posts on Court Street Wednesday afternoon were connected up with an ordinary commercial lighting circuit at a flat rate of $25 each per year, the same as the 100 candle power street lamps. No meter was installed in connecting the posts for light. It was first planned to connect the posts to the regular street lighting circuit and permit them to burn the same hours as the street lights, but the wiring was found too light to carry the heavy load. The policy of not installing meters then left the flat rate to fall back upon, and this was done. The lights were turned on for the first time Wednesday night, although the posts are still without the huge red globes which are to ornament the top.

The lamps are turned on by means of a switch at poles on the street corners opposite the posts, and this duty will be assigned to the night patrolmen, so that on gloomy evenings the lights can be turned on before the street lights.

CREAMERY SELLS 100 ACRE FARM

The receiver for The West Jefferson Creamery Company has sold the company's 100 acre farm near Columbus, to David Foklen, of Columbus, for $27,000.

The concern has been in the hands of a receiver for some time.

FARMERS MAY SELL MORE OF CORN IS PRESENT OUTLOOK

While very little corn raised in Fayette county has been placed upon the market to date, it is expected that soon after the first of the year considerable corn will be marketed, and that next spring more than the average amount will thus be disposed of.

A great many farmers are feeding their corn, however, and buying corn from neighbors who are not feeding so extensively. It is also expected that feeding will continue heavily without interruption.

At present little grain of any kind is moving north, wheat nor oats of which there is a liberal supply of each in Fayette county granaries.

SUPPLY COMPANY WILL SOON OPEN

Stockholders in the recently organized Citizen Meat and Supply Company announced Thursday that as soon as a suitable room can be secured the business will open.

More than one-fourth of the entire capital has been paid in, it is announced, and the plans of the company are completed.

It is still the purpose of the company to conduct a "piggly-wiggly" store in connection with the meat market, it was stated.

FARM NOTES

FARMERS FROWN ON
FUSS AND FEATHERS

If little Miss Anna Cona or members of such other prominent families in poultrydom as the Orpingtons and Leghorns expect to dazzle the judges at poultry shows this winter purely on fuss and feathers, they are due for disappointment. Unromantic poultry keepers are coming to the conclusion that handsome is as handsome doesn't, particularly during the summer.

It was all very well once, for Ann and her gay friends to put on their finest clothes along in midsummer and take a long vacation from egg laying. But the stern poultry-keeper noticed that their shabbier looking sisters with big hips and well developed waist lines were the real producers. So now he is revising his ideas of the "standard of perfection."

As a result, this winter, premiums will be offered on utility as well as good looks at a number of poultry shows, among them being the one at Gray's Armory, Cleveland, from January 10 to 15.

ALEMITE

A clean, practical and highly efficient system of lubrication for auto, truck or tractor. Automobile engineers claim that ninety percent of the service necessary on autos is the result of insufficient lubrication.

The Alemite High-Pressure Lubricating System consists of ball-check valve fittings, which are interchangeable with your present lubricating equipment.

A flexible metal hose is attached to a hand compressor or grease-gun made of 16-gauge steel, knurled to prevent turning in the hands, and exerting a pressure of 500 lbs. to the square inch. The compressor forces out the old, caked, grit-laden grease and packs all bearings with clean, new grease or oil, the thorough and complete lubrication of the chassis requiring about twenty minutes. The compressor and ball-check valve fittings complete the ALEMITE LUBRICATING SYSTEM.

Easily installed at garages or by yourself. Prices vary from $9.00 to $25.00 according to the number of fittings necessary.

Let us quote prices for ALEMITE for your auto, truck or tractor.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT TWAY FUNERAL

An exceptionally large home funeral was that of the late Mr. John Tway, held Wednesday afternoon, with the spacious rooms crowded to capacity with the large family connection and many friends. A large number came from the Yatesville neighborhood, with which for so many years the family had been prominently identified.

Rev. K. B. Alexander conducted services of simplicity and dignity, offering both tribute to the dead and solace to the living. He read the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" and a most appreciative memoir prepared by a nephew, County Treasurer David Whiteside.

Rev. Alexander spoke of death as in some respects an end; as a transition and as a consummation of all the tendencies of life and a crown of achievement, taking as his text: "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give you a crown of life."

He touched upon Mr. Tway as a leader in all the church work of Union Chapel and the conscientiousness with which he aided in whatever was for the betterment of the community.

A long line of autos followed the funeral car to the Bloomington cemetery for the burial in the family lot. The pallbearers were all nephews, Frank Clayton, Joseph, David and William Whiteside and Clark Darginger.

There were many and beautiful flowers from relatives and friends, including a large casket spray from nieces and nephews.

Relatives who came from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Rheitz, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lane and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, of West Liberty; Messrs. Amor, Albert and William Whiteside, of West Jefferson.

HARTMAN THEATER COLUMBUS

Chauncey Olcott, dean of lyric tenors and romantic actor of well deserved reputation will make his reappearance in Columbus after a long absence three nights and a matinee, commencing Monday night, January 3, at the Hartman Theatre. Mr. Olcott this season presents the romantic comedy written for him by Rida Johnson Young, entitled "Macushla", in which the star is supported by a cast of well known players, headed by that prominent young leading woman, Miss Allyn Gillyn. Mr. Olcott is singing with the same vigor and vibrant exhilaration that have marked him as one of the greatest of living ballad singers and his repertoire includes a number of engaging songs. Olcott, like Joseph Jefferson and David Warfield, occupies a field peculiarly his own and everything that good taste can suggest is exploited in his new play. When star bursts upon the stage in the first act of the comedy, in scarlet coat and velvet riding cap, and delivers his song, "Where the Shannon Flows" with all the spontaneity, vigor and grace of a youth of twenty, the fun and intrigue of "Macushla" begins to move swiftly. The play is clean, wholesome and fragrant as the breezes which ripple the Shannon. Mr. Olcott has as his associates, in addition to Miss Gillyn, Leo Stark, Miss Josephine Clavin, Joseph Kennedy, James Marr, and a trio of musicians: Alberto Terry, pianist; Emile de Cahuve, violinist, and Alfred Flaath, cellist. HAVE FOUND 210,000 BARBERIES IN OHIO

Government "sleuths" have located 210,000 of the common barberies in Ohio. And between 80 and 90 percent of these bushes have been destroyed. What's the idea?

The common barberry is the alternate host of the black stem rust of wheat, and is known to be responsible for destructive rust epidemics. Black stem rust causes an average loss of fifty million bushels of wheat every year, or almost twice the 1920 crop in Ohio.

The state and federal government have therefore joined forces to eradicate the plant.

This year a farm-to-farm survey was made in Green, Montgomery, Preble, Darke, Mercer, and Van Wert Counties. In each of these counties, barberies were found, the number of locations varying from 10 to 100. Since one location may cause a heavy attack of stem rust for a distance of 1½ to 2 miles around, even a few bushes may cause great loss.

Although the bushes have been removed voluntarily, Attorney General J. G. Price has ruled that the state department owners to destroy the harmful barberies growing on their property.—O. S. U. Bulletin.

FORMER RESIDENT ANSWERS LAST CALL

Word of the death of Mrs. Carrie K. Dempsey, widow of the late Col. A. T. Dempsey, which occurred at the home of the son, Mr. Tom Dempsey, of Westerville, reached her Wednesday, through a message sent to Mrs. H. K. Stewart and Miss Loria Martin from Mr. Dempsey.

A former, well known resident of this city and a member of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Dempsey's death will cause regret in this community.

Funeral services will be held in Westerville Friday afternoon.

As Outsiders See Us
It is pleasing encouraging too when we read what people of other nations, who have had occasion to observe America and the work of Americans, have to say about us. Almost invariably writers who come from other nations are loud in their praise of America and the whole-hearted way in which Americans go about big tasks and accomplish them.

We, here in America, are unmindful of our great achievements, unappreciative of our natural greatness, of our industry and our progress because we have permitted politicians to divide us into factions, wholly unappreciative and even abusive of each other.

It is well enough to be critical and exacting, regarding our public work. In that way we get the best service and the best results, but it is another and a different thing to find fault, abuse and scold about everything that is done and that is about what we are doing very mistakenly.

Sometimes when Americans get away from home and, unconsciously, make comparisons of things in other lands with things as they are in our own land they permit themselves to become a bit appreciative, forget the jealousy and envy that has been cultivated by selfish seekers after political favor and, sometimes, even grow boastful of their great nation.

Too bad we will not say more nice things about each other here at home. Too bad we must read what "foreigners" say in praise of us to get a true estimate of the great worth of America and Americans.

The Eras of Confusion
Every great change in the people's affairs, whether economic or moral, brings along with it an era of confusion and disorder.

A radical change in the mode of living in the nation is just as certain to bring confusion and disorder as a like change brings to the family.

No nation can turn from ways of peace, suddenly, into war and not undergo an era of wild confusion and no nation can stop, when going at top speed in war, and take up again the works of peace without suffering from the effects of the disarrangement of its internal affairs.

Neither is it remarkable that this great nation is experiencing difficulty in becoming firmly established as a prohibition nation. The process of changing a wet nation to a dry nation is certain to bring its era when the criminal seizes upon the confusion incident to such a change to break other laws and defy the authorities.

We are certain to have our "blockade runners" and criminal bootleggers who will stop at no crime to carry their purpose. They will shoot to kill and kill if necessary to prevent interruption. Until the stock of intoxicants runs low, until the border forces are better organized and until, in fact, prohibition becomes more firmly established we are going to have a crime wave attributable entirely to the confusion which follows after the decree of nation-wide prohibition.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon

Easily the most picturesque figure in the legislative halls of the nation "Uncle Joe" Cannon has rounded out and completed his full forty-four years of service in the House of Congress.

For many years Joseph G. Cannon as a young member, as an inexperienced member of Congress and later on as the veteran, has stood openly and steadfastly for the principles of government in which he believed.

He has never wavered in his open support of men or measures and has never sought to dodge or evade an issue. There never was any trouble in finding out just exactly where and how "Uncle Joe" stood.

He would "tell the world" at any time and he would fight his opponents, neither asking nor promising quarter. He has made thousands of friends and thousands of political enemies, but even his political enemies are his personal friends who admire his many good qualities.

Uncle Joe is a character—a strong character and now, and for years, has been a privileged character.

He is not now and never has been a great statesman. Perhaps he never aspired to be, but he has always been and is, even yet, in spite of his years, a good Congressman, a square fighter and a determined old party warrior.

Americans, regardless of party, are anxious now that the old Congressman stretch his record of service out to a round half century.

POETRY FOR TODAY
ACHIEVEMENT
I'm sick of it all,
I'm tired of the load,
There isn't a sign of a light on the road.
Where there once was a goal:
At the top of the hill,
There is nothing at all,
The air is chill.
I have climbed and I've fought,
With never a thought
That the rest of the world was behind
I strove for success,
I have reached it, I guest;
But there's not a soul here I can find.
At the top of the hill,
At the crest of the slope,
At the height of success for which all persons hope,
As I stand and look back,
For a trace or a track, of the friends
I have known,
There are none
They have gone.
I have won!
I'm alone.

DAWES SEEMS SURE TO LAND TREASURY POST IN NEW CABINET

Hughes Selection As Secretary Of State Now Conceded

Geography Makes Weeks Ineligible For Treasury Post

Announcement Of At Least Two Posts May Be Made Soon

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Marion, Oh., December 30.—To anyone familiar with the intricate web of considerations which determine such matters the overwhelming likelihood of the appointment of Chas. G. Dawes of Chicago, as secretary of the treasury, must be apparent. Nearly all the politicians, and many of the newspapers as well, have assumed that this post would go to ex-Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts. Especially in Washington and the east have the politicians and newspapers gone on this assumption. In many cases of inaccurate reasoning it is the wish that has misled the thoughts. The Eastern papers and Washington politicians have wanted Weeks and predicted Weeks because Weeks comes from Massachusetts and the spokesman of the whole eastern section which regards itself as the country's financial center have wished and expected that the secretary of the treasury would be selected from that background but to any one who had to look at it, from the larger standpoint of the whole of all considerations involved, it has been apparent that Weeks was not likely to be selected. From the beginning Dawes has been the more likely man to start with.

The two great posts of importance and honor in the cabinet are the state department and the treasury it would be inexpedient, according to every accepted way of political thought to fill both these posts from the same section of the country. When Harding came to put his mind closely on it it must have been as apparent to him as it is to any one else who put his mind on it with the same intenseness at the bulk of available material for secretary of state.

The secretary of state has always been sure to come from the east, incidentally the appointment of Hughes as secretary of state is now almost as sure as the appointment of Dawes to the treasury department. But even omitting the present comparative certainty of Hughes at the very beginning in first surveying the field it was clear that the state department would go to the east, everybody who at any time has had the remotest chance to be made secretary of state was an easterner, not only Hughes, but also the man who in the public eye, was his chief competitor, Root, both came from New York City. David Jayne Hill came from New York state, Knox came from Pennsylvania. From this point on it must have been easier for Harding to make the choice of secretary of the treasury than to make the choice of secretary of state. From that point, indeed, it is simple to predict the choice of Dawes as secretary of the treasury in the first place. Since, at all events, the choice was to be made from the west the logical thing, and the big thing, was to make it from the men who have had experience in banking on the very largest scale. These men who are only to be found in the west's biggest cities and greatest financial centers. For a considerable time it has been apparent to any one who thought about it, from a sufficient foundation of information, that the treasury department was more or less foreclosed in favor of Chicago, and in Chicago there were just two bankers of available age. There are one or two other great bankers in Chicago but they are too old. The two available bankers were Charles G. Dawes and George B. Reynolds both were engaged of a satisfactory size. In fact, I think that George B. Reynolds was once offered the treasury post by Taft when he was president. What has made Dawes the more likely of the two, at the present time, is largely a matter of local Chicago conditions. Dawes is said to be a little the more resourceful man. A man of a little more courage, moreover, Dawes had had more political experience. He was comptroller of the treasury in McKinley's administration more than twenty years ago. Also Dawes is probably aided by the fact that he was active in the war. Dawes is a close friend of General Pershing and either through Pershing, or otherwise, Dawes was made purchaser of supplies for the allies with the rank of general. In that capacity he is said to have made a remarkable record. One of the stories told of him that on one occasion, when he felt the public welfare required him to say something to Lloyd George, he insisted on the interview with such energy that he was described as having kicked Lloyd George's door in. Logic has all along pointed unmistakably to Dawes and now the appearances bear out the logic of course. If what is here said is correct it will cause Harding a good deal of pain not to give ex-Senator Weeks an appointment, which he is believed to want and for which he has extraordinary fitness. Weeks when he was in the senate showed that he knew the theory and practice of banking better than any other man in public life. He was almost as responsible as Wilson was for the passage of the Federal Reserve Act, and he was even more responsible for the enormous amount of care and hard work that went into the perfecting of that measure. In a way it is Weeks' misfortune. In this connection, that he is equally well fitted for one or two other cabinet posts. It can be predicted with great confidence, that Weeks will be in the cabinet.

It seems likely that Harding will definitely select his secretary of state and his secretary of the treasury in advance of the other offices. Probably they will be chosen before Senator

Harding leaves for his Florida trip two or three weeks from now. It has been urged upon Harding that the next secretary of state should have a considerable time in which to familiarize himself with our present complex foreign relations before he takes up his duties. The same necessity has, on the new secretary of the treasury to familiarize himself with our revenue problems.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gifford, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Glascock, of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maynard assembled a group of the intimates of the honor guests former residence here, for an exceptionally brilliant and beautiful six o'clock dinner, followed by a progressive card game, Wednesday evening.

The personnel of the affair was particularly congenial and interesting and the dinner, perfect in every detail, demonstrated anew the well established prestige of the hostess in the art of entertaining.

Christmas suggestions were carried out in wonderfully artistic decorations and a very elaborate four course menu including all the delicacies of the season and the last course a typical Christmas plum pudding.

A fascinating big white Christmas basket filled with Christmas flowers, the brilliant poinsettia predominating, and the handle tied with big scarlet tulle bow, graced the center of the table, and at either end tall Cathedral candles of green burned brightly in crystal sticks. The place cards were clever conundrums.

Covers were laid with the host and hostess and honor guests for Mrs. A. P. Rusk, of Zanesville, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tritschler, of Chillicothe; Hon. and Mrs. Frank C. Parrett, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Spragg, Mr. Willard Story.

The popularity of the honor guests was attested in a measure of gaiety throughout the evening.

Mrs. Gifford whose beauty always impresses itself anew upon each return to her home town, was stunning in a gown midnight blue georgette elaborately beaded, an amber shell comb completing the perfect coiffure of her blonde hair.

Mrs. Glascock, charmingly vivacious, looked extremely handsome in black satin with blue jeweled comb in the masses of her dark hair.

The two sisters have been complimented with a number of the little intimate affairs so pleasurable during their holiday visit.

The last lap of the year witnessing a round of gaiety and rivaling all other affairs in the younger set, was the Chi Delta Chi holiday dance of Wednesday night at Memorial hall under the auspices of the American Legion.

It was a real Christmas dance, sparkling with brilliant yuletide decorations; pulsing with the thrill of youth and holiday spirit and the charming bevy of Chi Delta Chi girls personally interested in seeing that everything went off just right.

The hall was enveloped in soft rosy light, through incandescent bulbs veiled in red, and streamers of red and green formed over head festoons from the balcony to the center. At one end of the hall, on either side of the orchestra, were pretty Christmas trees, brilliant with gay colored bulbs, which alone furnished lights for one picturesque dance.

The grand march formed at half past nine o'clock with the brilliant line of girls in lovely evening frocks and their debonair escorts, led by Miss Florence Bliss and Mr. Willard Perrill. Programs were given out and the dance moved merrily on, through popular favor dances especially pretty—a balloon dance, each man dancing with the girl whose name was attached to the balloon he caught as the airy balls floated through the air. The serpentine dance in the Christmas colors was especially effective.

The music was exceptionally fine, furnished by Parker's five piece orchestra, of Columbus, with Parker himself putting into it additional pep. Light refreshments were served, the catering in charge of Chester Koble and Herbert Edwards. Mrs. Mayme Eady was in charge of the dressing room.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Hamilton were the official chaperones.

There were many out of town folk, the guest list including Misses Janet Thornton, of Gerrig, Neb.; Madelyn Birney, of El Paso, Texas; Neva Christian of Berea Kentucky; Jessie Spiker of Clarksburg, W. Va.; Jean Fitzgerald, Lora Ellen Tharp, Lorie Robinson, the Misses Chester of Columbus; Elouise Hewitt, of Sedalia; Mrs. Scott of Xenia; Misses Ruth Pugsley, of Chillicothe; Virgie Smith and Louise Rohlan of London; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beatty, of Columbus; Messrs. Jack Worrell, Mercer Hufford, Donald Kyle and Chester Reeves, of Columbus; Eddie Furry of Springfield; William Smith of Xenia; Arthur Haley and Mr. Stitt, of Chillicothe; Stanley Boylan of Delaware; Dr. Winchell Craig, of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. Hewitt of Sedalia; Miss Rosalie Slagle, Lima; Mr. Colin Campbell Bainbridge, Miss Marion Sands, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Marion Foster of Waverly.

They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

No household of the community radiated greater happiness and cheer than that of the hospitable John McDonald home on Wednesday night, when Miss Margaret McDonald assisted by Miss Elizabeth McDonald gave a stag dinner in honor of her three brothers James, Aloysius and Joseph, the latter home for the holidays from St. Mary's Academy, Dayton. It was entirely a surprise affair and as complete a success in this feature as in the delights of the dinner, with its admirably prepared courses, beauty of decoration and gay merriment.

A clever idea was introduced in the seating arrangement at three separate tables in the big dining room. Each of this trio of popular young fellows acted as host at his own table, where were grouped his own intimates.

Seated with Mr. James McDonald were his Hoyle brothers, Messrs. Maynard Craig, Mortimer W. Clagens R. Burris Tharp, Thomas H. Craig, Jr. Charles S. Willis, and, as an additional guest, Dr. Winchell McK. Craig, of Baltimore. This was the center table, having brilliantly effective decoration of brass candleabra, holding scarlet candles reflected in the table mirror beneath a broad lane of cedar sparkling with diamond dust which lent a touch of the wintry season, and scarlet flowers dotting the damask.

Flanking this table on either side were two smaller tables, embellished with crystal sticks and scarlet candles and a duplicate arrangement of the cedar and flowers. Seated at these were the personal friends of Messrs. Aloysius and Joseph McDonald. At the first Messrs. Howard S. Harper, Ronald Dick, Selsor Fenner, Renick Allen, Robert McFadden, Richard Haynes, Howard Gregg and Arthur Haley of Chillicothe and at the second, Thomas Rogers, Charles Fabb, David S. Craig, Jr., Grove Davis and Willard Perrill.

The favors were silk flower boutonniers which the boys wore to the Chi Delta Chi dance following later in the evening.

Mrs. Glenn Rodgers gave a charming afternoon party, Wednesday, her guests members of the Thursday Kensington Club, and a few close friends of her sister, Mrs. George James, of Indianapolis, Ind., who is visiting at the Rodgers home for the holidays.

The exchange of gifts among the members was an enjoyed feature.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. F. Stuckey and Mrs. S. A. Murray in the serving of a dainty lunch.

Rev. Karl B. Alexander united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage Thursday morning at ten o'clock, Miss Corrine Vance and Mr. Dewey Bumgarner, the ring ceremony being used.

The bride, a very pretty blonde is the daughter of Mrs. J. Y. Stitt of Bloomingburg. For her marriage, she was wearing a handsome gown of brown satin embroidered in yarn, with top coat of brown silvertone, hat, shoes and gloves ensuited her costume completed with a corsage of pink rosebuds. For the past years she has been one of the operators at the Bloomingburg exchange.

The bridegroom is the younger son of Mrs. J. N. Bumgarner of this city and with his bride will reside on the Bumgarner farm on the Lewis pike, which he and his older brother Guy farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Bumgarner left on the 10:47 for a short wedding trip to Columbus. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Misses Kathryn McLean, Florence Bliss, Dorothy Dick and Mary Brown went to Columbus, Thursday for the day, going on to London, in the evening to be guests at a week end house-party entertained by Miss Hildreth Snyder.

Miss Snyder honors her guests with a dance Thursday evening.

A delightful affair of the holiday season was the party given by Misses Naomi Campbell and Thelma Davis, at the Campbell home on the Lewis pike, Wednesday evening.

Piano and Victrola selections interspersed a happy evening of games.

Mrs. Clarence L. Campbell assisted her daughter and Miss Davis in serving delicious refreshments.

The guests were: Misses Mary Ellen Campbell, Leona Hewitt, Frances McCoy, Janet Barger, Ho Hyma, Ruth Davis, Mildred Hyer, Thelma Craig, Helen Counts, Louise Dellinger, Marjorie Culbertson; Malcolm Hankins, William Roby, Donald Rodgers, Vivian Baughn, Harold Hewitt, Clyde English, Frank Brown, Henry Hixon, Jr., Maynard Icenhour, Willis Davis, Ralph Michaels, Dana Hyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Perrill added a handsome dinner to the holiday season, Wednesday.

The dinner hour was full of gaiety and double pleasure in renewing of friendships disturbed by the separation of college life.

The table was extremely pretty with a lovely pink begonia in the center.

The favored guests were Misses Gretchen Blankenship, Nellie Higbee, Florence Jacobs, Margaret Ellen Reid, Gladys Erich and Mrs. Amos Zimmerman (nee Harriette Morrow).

Miss Lillian Davis brought together a small party of close friends very informally Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to her guest, Mrs. Clarence Ewing (Pauline Foster) of Waverly.

There were two tables of Bridge, the guests Miss Marion Foster, of Waverly, Misses Dorothy Fullerton, Jean Howat, Emily Palmer, Opal Moore, Mrs. Loring Brock and Mrs. Clifford Peddicord.

White narcissi in bud vases decorated the tables, and a particularly delicious collation was served.

Mrs. B. F. Davis and Miss Kathleen assisted.

Mr. W. T. Kershner, who spent Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Will Engle left for his home in Lodi Thursday. Mr. Roy Grobly of Chicago was also the holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Engle and family.

Miss Gladys Nelson went to Bainbridge Wednesday to be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Sylvester for several days.

Mr. Vernon J. Schwalle came down from Newark Wednesday to join Mrs. Schwalle at the home of her grandmother Thursday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Schwalle went to Cincinnati to visit over New Years.

Miss Stella K. Morgan returned Wednesday evening from a Christmas visit with her sister, Mrs. B. H. Orr in Cincinnati.

Miss Elizabeth McDonald went to Columbus Thursday to spend the day and remain over for a dinner dance at the Hotel Deshler.

SIMPLE SERVICES FOR MARION GELLER

Funeral services largely attended were held in the White Oak Grove Church at ten o'clock Wednesday morning for Marion Geller, prominent farmer of near Buena Vista who died suddenly last Sunday evening.

Rev. Rose conducted the simple but affectionate service.

Funeral services were: Messrs. Frank Grimsley, Herman Garber, Leroy Judy, Alfred Judy, Ralph Purcell, and Homer Anderson.

Interment was made in the White Oak cemetery.

Mr. Geller, a brother from Columbus, and the son, Mr. Elza Geller, of Columbus, were here from a distance to attend the funeral.

HUNTING LICENSES EXPIRE ON FRIDAY

Attention has been called in the Clerk of Court's office to the fact that hunting licenses expire December 31.

All hunters must apply for a 1921 license if they expect to hunt during the remainder of the season. The rabbit season expires on January 1, but a new permit must be secured if the last day of open law is used by the hunter.

Fortune may knock on at every man's door, but misfortune crawls in at the window.

PALMER GARAGE CHANGES HANDS

Robert Lanum To Assume Charge of East Street Garage on January 1st.

The Palmer Garage on East Street has been disposed of to Robert Lanum, well known young automobile man of this city, who was with the U. S. Aerial forces overseas.

In addition to the general business, leases and options on the building, the deal carries with it the agency for the Chevrolet automobiles in this district. Mr. Lanum has been making rapid strides in the automobile field, and his further advancement will be learned with pleasure by a large number of friends.

Mr. Palmer, it is announced, will enter the automobile business in another location in this city, and will also conduct a real estate business in connection with his other business.

"THE PARDON THAT CAME TOO LATE"

ONE KILLED

(By Associated Press)
New York, December 29.—One man was killed and two others injured, one probably fatally, in the explosion of an oil tank in the forward end of the Vacuum Oil Company tanker Charles M. Everest in a Brooklyn drydock to night.

Fite's Grocery will be closed all day New Years Day, Saturday, January 1. Will be open Friday evening.

PISTOL WOUND MAY BE FATAL TO YOUNG GIRL

Accidental Discharge of Pistol Sends Bullet Crashing Into Girl's Head.

Miss Alma Tarlton, of New Martinsburg, Taken To Greenfield Hospital.

Miss Alma Tarlton, sixteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Tarlton, of New Martinsburg, is in the Greenfield hospital in a very serious condition due to a gunshot wound inflicted about 9:00 o'clock Thursday morning when a pistol in the hands of her niece, Samuel Blade of Springfield, was accidentally discharged.

Blade, it seems had the pistol in his hand while Miss Tarlton was standing in the door of her home, and when the gun was accidentally discharged the ball struck her in the left cheek and tore its way through the roof of the mouth, ranging upward and stopping near the right eye which was almost forced from the socket.

With blood pouring from the wound Miss Tarlton fell in a dazed condition, but later regained full consciousness. Physicians hurriedly called arranged to take her to the Greenfield hospital for operation later Thursday in the hope of stopping the flow of blood, removing the bullet and, if possible, save her life.

The pistol was of 38 caliber and the leaden ball tore a large hole through the cheek, roof of the mouth, and upward toward the eye.

Physicians think that while the girl's condition is very serious, she has a fair chance of recovery, and are bending every effort to save her life.

Blade, whose home is in Springfield had been visiting his relatives and is heart broken over the affair.

OPPOSE TEACHING ITALIAN TONGUE AMONG BRAZILIANS

Rio de Janeiro, (By Mail)—Some Brazilian government officials oppose the Italian government's proposal that the Italian language be taught in Brazilian schools in districts largely occupied by immigrants from Italy. This plan was contained in the labor and emigration agreement which the Italian government recently offered to Brazil. The Brazilian Director General of Commercial and Consular Affairs, no longer a paid position, was subject to his government objecting to this proposal.

The agreement planned to regulate the future settlement of Italians in Brazil, where they already form an important part of the population, particularly in the coffee-producing state to decide controversies between workers and their employers.

Objection is made by Brazilians on the ground that obligatory teaching of Italian would increase the difficulty of assimilating the immigrants to the national life of the country, giving rise to the same complaints formulated against the teaching of German in the large German settlements in Santa Catharina state. This state has become so Germanized that, after Brazil entered the war, teaching of Portuguese and other national subjects was made obligatory in all the schools throughout the union.

HEAD PIN TOURNEY DRAWS ATTENTION OF ALL BOWLERS

Practically every bowler in the Y. M. C. A. bowling league is expected to roll in the Head Pin Tournament on the "Y" alleys Saturday.

With the added inducement of a special designed bowling ball as prize some high scores will probably result. In the head pin tourney last year Carl Noon, in winning a loving cup, rolled 114 and lacked but one pin of equalling the state tournament record. The highest score possible in head pin bowling is 120.

Bowlers will be registered as they appear at the alleys Saturday and an official scorer will call the names in rotation and keep the records.

The alleys will be open at eight o'clock and one alley will be reserved all day for head pin contestants.

UNION DELIVERY

TREMENDOUS SALE ARMY-NAVY GOODS

Government Surplus Stocks and Other Merchandise

117 N. Fayette St., 1-2 Block from Court Street

OPENING THURSDAY, DEC. 30, AT 8 A. M.

We have purchased several cars of Army and Navy Goods. We are offering this material to the public at less than cost. Several manufacturers have turned over their goods for us to dispose of, and this sale will give the public their chance to buy seasonable merchandise at their own price. Let your own eyes convince you that this is your chance. Let the merchandise tell its own story of UNEQUALED Values. If seeing is believing, then all you need do is come to our store and be convinced. We are disposing these goods through our various chain of stores, at GREATER REDUCTIONS, even less than pre-war prices. There never has been a sale like this held in this territory, there never will be another like it, because when these vast stocks are disposed of we can not replace at the prices we are now asking.

LEGION TO STAGE WRESTLING SHOW MONDAY EVENING

Olympic Athlete and Ohio State Instructor in Wrestling to be First Principals.

Boxing Commission Being Appointed by Mayor Dahl To Control Conduct of Bouts.

In the first wrestling bout to be staged under the auspices of the American Legion, George Kotsonaros, Greek heavyweight grappler, will meet Cliff Binckley, instructor in wrestling at Ohio State University next Monday night at Memorial Hall.

Captain Charles Allen, in charge of the arrangements for the show, received a telegram Wednesday evening from the Columbus matchmakers representing the Legion that the two heavies have been signed up for appearance here.

In Kotsonaros and Binckley two of the mightiest contenders in the heavy weight class have been secured. Kotsonaros is a Greek who took part in the recent Olympic games and on New Year's afternoon will meet Paul Martinson in Columbus. No wrestler recently has attracted the enthusiasm of the fans in Columbus as this young Greek.

Local fans are well acquainted with Cliff Binckley. At present he is instructor of wrestling in Ohio State University and is claimant to the state heavyweight championship title.

A City Boxing Commission is being appointed by Mayor Dahl, to control the conduct of all boxing and wrestling events staged here and the Legion will not use any boxer or wrestler who has not the sanction of the State Boxing Commission.

A big crowd of fans is expected for the opening match.

FARMERS TO MAKE DRIVE IN ROSS

Twelve Ohio farmers, each a member of Farm Bureau, will enter Ross county Monday for the purpose of assisting in the drive for a large membership in the Ross County Farm Bureau.

The Bureau had 905 members $3.00 per year, but efforts will be made to double the number at $10 per year, the same fee charged in other parts of the state.

Doubtless many incompetents were attached to the Shipping Board's payroll. Grafted on it, so to speak.

STUDENT SUMS UP NEW YEARS GAME IN CALIFORNIA

Pay S. Zimmerman, of near this city, a student at the University of Michigan, who witnessed the most important conference football games of the past season, has contributed the following interesting summary of the prospects of Ohio State and the University of California in their great classic which will feature the Tournament of Roses on New Years Day. Although he does not attempt to pick the winner, nevertheless, it is seen that Ohio State has the "edge." He points out, however, that playing conditions are very much against the Buckeye eleven, as regards the new field, the climate and other factors which are detrimental to the Western Conference champs. Zimmerman says "California and Ohio State meet at Pasadena, Cal., on New Years day in the biggest intersection game of this football season. Ohio State as champions of the Western Conference representing the conference and the East with the University of California as champions of the Pacific coast, representing the far west. "Ohio State met five conference teams and with Purdue excepted such teams played better football than any opponent that California was called upon to face. "California only met three formidable teams, Oregon Aggies, Washington State and Stanford. "Ohio State outplayed every eleven met in a season of strong teams in the Western Conference. The Buckeye line divides honors with Wisconsin in being the two best teams in the conference.

Dog Tags Ready to Distribute

The County Auditor now has the 1921 Dog Tags ready for distribution. Each owner or harbinger of a dog must make application for a license tag for each dog before January 1, 1921. Male dog, $1.00. Female dog, $3.00. Glenn M. Pine, County Auditor.

"The California line has not been subjected to the opposition of such forwards as Wisconsin, Illinois, Chicago and Michigan. "Ohio State's backfield must be given an advantage over that of the Bruins, for California has no such elusive all-American halfback as Stinchcomb, who can be relied upon to repeat the running back of punts, smashes off tackle and receiving of Workman's passes which have gained him all-American recognition. California presents a well balanced backfield slightly lighter than that of Buckeyes it is a backfield which fights hard and will give its best to defeat the conference champions. "The change, climatic conditions and renewal of practice are all to the disadvantages of the Buckeyes, while the Bruins should remain unaffected and be playing at their best. "The lineups, weights and games played by each team are as follows: Ohio State—R. E. N. Workman, 186; R. T. Speira, 184; R. G. Halyor, 186; C. Nemeck, 195; L. G. Taylor, 183; L. T. Huffman, 183; L. E. Meyers, 168; Q. B. H. Workman, 165; R. H. Blair, 168; L. H. Stinchcomb, 155; F. B. Willman, 195. California—R. E. Sumner, 188; R. T. McMillan, 186; R. G. Majors, 189; C. Latham, 190; L. G. Cranmer, 192; L. T. Dean, 187; L. E. Berkey, 182; Q. B. Erb, 155; R. H. Spratt, 170; L. H. Toomey, 160; F. B. Morrison, 185. "The average weight of the California line is 188, while that of Ohio State is 182, giving the Bruins a weight advantage of six pounds in the forward wall. The California backfield tips 167 as against the Buckeye backfield average of 170.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS SESSION

Action Taken to Renew Notes—President Must be Named by Mayor. Says Solicitor Junk

A brief session of the city council was held Wednesday night for the announced intention of selecting a president to fill the vacancy due to the resignation of Probate Judge-elect Nye Gregg, and to consider the renewal of certain notes which have fallen due.

Authorization for the renewal of three notes, one for $8359.80; the second for $5628; and the third for $8,000 was given. The notes were issued in anticipation of payment of special assessments.

When the matter of a new president was taken up, Rowe nominated Henry Brownell for the position, but before further nominations were made Solicitor Junk announced that council had no authority to name its own president, and that it was up to Mayor Dahl to pick the new official. Solicitor Junk also ruled that the

MR. JIGGS: ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF CLUBS FOR WOMEN?

YES BUT I'D BE AFRAID TO HIT MY WIFE WITH ONE.

I THINK THIS CLUB SHOULD BE A LITERARY ONE - WE SHOULD HAVE A LARGE LIBRARY - I WISH I LIVED IN THE OLDEN DAYS AND HAD MET SOME OF THE OLD AUTHORS.

I'M SORRY YOU DIDN'T GIT YOUR WISH.

WOULDN'T SHAKESPEARE BE A WONDERFUL MAN IF HE WERE ALIVE TODAY.

I SHOULD SAY HE WOULD.
